A charming little book to help celebrate the little things in life.

By Marcie

Just Little Things: A Celebration of Life's Simple Pleasures is written by Nancy Vu, creator of JustLittleThings.net. Vu celebrates life's little joys and puts them into this colorful little book. The book reminds me of a book for small children in that it's colorful and simple. Every page is a different color with a short sentence describing something that you can get joy out of.

This book would make a great gift to someone who enjoys little things in life. This would also be a great book to have laying around to pick up every now and again to remind yourself of the little things. Because let's face it, sometimes it's easy to forget to appreciate the little things.

Best Wedding Guest Book EVER!!

By Sally.np

A great little feel-good book!

Used it for my wedding guest book & encouraged them to sign on a page with a "little thing" that spoke to them - my guests were raving about the idea!

Great gift

By cindy fellows

I bought several of these and have used them to give away as gifts. In several cases I used them as giant cards and asked others to write special messages to the recipient. Such a fun idea. Not only does the recipient get a wonderfully written book with great insights into what is really important in life, they get the personalized touch of individual messages.
