Great music, but not for me

By Patrick J. Callahan

I was too hasty in purchasing this book. I am pianist. I discovered when I got the book home that it is strictly accompaniment. In other words, the piano parts do not play the melody lines. The scores are strictly background for voice.

This is certainly not the fault of the book. I should have examined it more carefully before purchasing it.

I liked the selection of pieces chosen for this book. The book itself is beautifully printed, with an excellent introduction that features color photos of the Celtic Women.

You may like this book -- but only if you have one or more female vocalists on hand to perform it with you. If you are strictly a pianist, beware.

Extremely Nice Collection

By Andrea Crannell

Extremely nice collection of well arranged selections from Celtic Woman. I was looking for the arrangement of "You Raise Me Up" as I sing it very well with a prerecorded background. As an experienced pianist I wanted to accompany myself and this arrangement was perfect for doing just that.
