Most Christians today believe that God's promise to establish the New Covenant (Jeremiah 31) has been fulfilled in the Gospel of Christ. It is a shock to learn that the Dispensational world denies this, and says the Jeremiad Covenant will not be established until the Second Coming of Christ, at the end of the Christian age! In this carefully reasoned and powerful new book, prolific author Don K. Preston (D. Div.) demonstrates the dangers of such a view, and with careful logic and exegesis shows that the Gospel is now, and will always be, the one covenant, the only covenant wherein salvation is to be found! This is a devastating critique of Dispensationalism, and a Gospel magnifying work! A definite "must read!"

Fulfilled!

By Michael T

A nice treatment by Don K. Preston showing that the apostles and writers of the New Testament found the fulfillment of what "the Prophets and Moses said was going to take place" (Acts 26:22 NASB) in the gospel of Christ Jesus: that is, the promised New Covenant of Jeremiah 31:31f and Hosea 1:10f, etc. have been fulfilled in Christ.

Preston does a fine job comparing claims of a future fulfillment against what scripture clearly teaches. Recommended for Millennial and Dispensational believers with an open mind and a propensity for searching scriptures to see if these things are so (Acts 17:11).

A quick read!
